Dear Brian,

Happy New Year. I'm attaching several one-page docs as a follow-up to our conversation last month. Though there are several attachments, I assure you that each one is concise, and that they address the points that Chip emphasized: measuring economic contributions, and setting clear goals in this area.

Please note: I chose not to send this directly to Chip. Rather, I am trusting your judgment as to whether or not these materials merit his attention at this time. Please advise as to whether I should send, and whether to him or to Paula.

I look forward to your response and to answering any questions. I do hope that you will be able to join us for our Launch event. Excitement is really building!

Best regards,
Dave

Michael

The Collaborative is now under the Health Commission. The Health Center staff were informed of the change New Year's eve. Was very polite with them, didn't point out that their boss is a bozo.

There are a few loose ends to finish.

- Julie's is still going back and forth about the fiscal agent role. There is ongoing conversation between the Commission and Julie's about the agreement. Julie's had several additional concerns for the Commission on Friday. I wasn't able to speak with Commission lawyer on Friday to find out what they were. I know Julie's is worried about getting stuck with unemployment and liability issues. I spoke with Bob earlier and reassured him the Collab, if it came to that, would pay for any unemployment costs associated with this. I have my own liability insurance and am in the process of getting professional liability for the Collab. Inc Dodo's also spoken with Bob. The Board Chair wants to put this before their entire Board for a vote before going ahead if all the details can be ironed out. That is 1/28. I will forward a memo to Peter Golemme to review outlining the Collab commitment to Julie's and then send to Chair of Julie's Board from Dodo.
- Commission has been very helpful during transition. Problems with the Health Center effected tech/Internet being transferred smoothly. I'm not re-hiring into the open position till I see what happens with the state budget. Using the surplus to pay for my time. Dodo mentioned Bobby Sances is looking for a position. I'm going to talk to him to see what he is looking for and see if there is something we can offer him. Commission's biggest issue with us is their worry we're a money losing program.
- They spoke to me about Mike Conroy. Told them he is well liked and respected here. They are going to have him report to Jan Quiram to start and then may move him over here after some transition period.

I'll keep you posted as all this develops.

Sorry wasn't able to get by to see you....hope the recovery is going well

Michael

My apologies for bugging you....but

Spoke with Joe Rull earlier today about hold up with Julie's. Bob keeps referencing that his Board Chair is concerned about the legality of putting me on their payroll for this, as well as his auditor is now saying Julie's will likely be audited by the OSD due to the unusual arrangement. He is adamant we must agree to cover any unemployment costs if any. His Chair has sent the Commission's lawyer a response to the draft agreement. I don't know what the response from the Commission is yet.

I've told him will cover any costs, unemployment or otherwise, they might have. I have an email to Peter Golemme to check on how we should put that in writing. There could be an issue regarding us agreeing in writing to unemployment costs for another entity.

He said his Board's Executive Committee is now involved in the process and that, if anything is agreed to, his full Board will need to approve this at their January meeting. He was doubtful we would have anything done by then and his read of his Committee was they were pretty negative about doing this.

I know if there was more time this would have gone smoother with Julie's, but this is becoming more of a problem for me in a couple of ways.....if we don't get something positive from him soon, anyway we can go with the Collab. Inc. ?

Hi, Michael:

I hope the first days of the New Year are treating you well. I know that work life can't be much crazier with the economy and tonight's speech. Good luck. Our prayers are with you and Mayor Menino.

I am writing to let you know I am expanding the scope of the writing work I have been doing as a consultant. Police and criminal justice remain close to my heart but I am also looking to be of service in more general ways in the government and non-profit sectors as a writer, program designer and facilitator. I have taken the liberty of attaching a little CV I put together in that regard.

Please let me know if you see any opportunities for me to be of use.

All the best!
Thanks,

Jim

Dot:

Ellen in Assessing called me to say that last month someone in California sent in a foi requesting tax payment information relating to Michael Flaherty. Assessing fulfilled this request. (I was never informed about this until today. Apparently Ron Rakow was off and people in his office just fulfilled it on their own.) In the last week, two separate foi requests have come in...one from the Midwest and one from Washington, D.C. requesting tax information for Tom Menino. Ellen says the text of those two requests appears to be identical.

Ellen is going to give me copies of the foi requests and also a copy of what response was sent to the California address. I'll make sure you get a copy.
